

Accommodation and Travel Information

The 10th Celtic Linguistics Conference

Maynooth University, 4th - 5th September, 2018

Dear Delegates,

Please find below some useful information regarding the accommodation and travel options for the The 10th Celtic Linguistics Conference.

Accommodation

Since there are not many choices of accommodation in Maynooth, and the beginning of September is quite a busy time, We strongly encourage our delegates to book as early as possible to avoid disappointment.

The more economic option will be to stay in Maynooth University rooms (<https://www.maynoothcampus.com/rooms/>). We have reserved a number of rooms on the South and North campuses of the University, which are approximately a 5-minute walk apart. You can choose from either of the following two options:

South Campus Accommodation

Single college rooms prices are €32.00 on a single occupancy basis and €26.00 per person sharing. These are private bedrooms with shared shower and toilet facilities down the corridor.

Breakfast is a continental breakfast and is an additional €7.00 per person per day.

North Campus Apartments

University Village/Rye Hall – single bedrooms within a 5 bedroom apartment with a fully fitted kitchen and living area at a daily rate of €34.00 per person per day.

River/Courtyard - single ensuite bedrooms within a 5 bedroom apartment with a fully fitted kitchen and living area at a daily rate of €41.00 per person per day.

To avail of academic rates for campus accommodation, please book one of the following ways and use the voucher code below:

- 1) Visit www.maynoothcampus.com enter your arrival and departure dates and type in the e-voucher code CHHIB_03/18 in the voucher field.
- 2) Alternatively call 01 708 6400 and quote the voucher code when booking with our receptionist
- 3) Email front.desk@nuim.ie and quote the voucher code when enquiring about the availability.

Please notice that the prices stand for the period of Sep. 3rd to 5th at the moment and may be subject to change.

An alternative option is to stay in the Glenroyal Hotel (<https://www.glenroyal.ie>), which is just 10 min walk from the University's North Campus. These rooms include WIFI, Parking, Daily Newspaper and the use of a Leisure Club. Delegates to the Celtic Linguistics Conference can reserve a room at the special MU corporate rate (listed below) for the nights of their choosing - all they have to do is book directly with the hotel, quoting the reference code (227207):

	Single Room	Double / Twin Room
Midweek (Sun – Thurs)	€87.00	€107.00
Weekend (Fri & Sat)	€107.00	€127.00

Other accommodation options:

Lucan and Leixlip are nearby villages and both have a number of hotel and B&B options. They are connected to Maynooth by Dublin Bus Route 66 and 67, while a regular rail service also operates between Maynooth and Leixlip Louisa-Bridge and Leixlip-Confey stations. The Clayton Hotel at Liffey Valley is also located on Routes 66/67 and is another convenient option. If you wish to stay in Dublin instead, please consult the 'Travel' section below.

Travel

The conference will take place in the Boardroom on the upper floor of the Phoenix building on North Campus, which can be found via the following link:

<https://www.maynoothuniversity.ie/location>

Travelling from Dublin Airport

Maynooth lies just 33km south-west of Dublin Airport, around 40 minutes travel time by car. Follow the M50 motorway southbound and exit at Junction 7 towards N4 (westbound). Take junction 7 (signposted Maynooth/Straffan/Naas) off the M4 and follow the signs to Maynooth. Turn left in the centre of the town and the gates to the South Campus are directly ahead of you. To reach the North Campus, take the left in the centre of the town, then turn right, take the next left and the entrance is on your right.

The Airport Hopper is a daily shuttle bus service to and from Dublin Airport. This needs to be booked online in advance. For further information and timetables access <https://airporthopper.ie/maynooth-timetable/>.

Travelling from Dublin

Maynooth is served by two Dublin Bus routes – the 66 and the 67. Both of these buses depart from Merrion Square in Dublin and run frequent services to the town. The 66x is an express service. Both bus routes are the same until they reach Lucan; from here the 66 travels to Maynooth via Leixlip, and the 67 via Celbridge. See the Dublin Bus website for full details. Please note that all Dublin Bus fares are exact coins only- no change is given and bank notes are not accepted.

Maynooth lies on the Western Suburban railway line which serves the four Dublin city centre stations (Pearse Station, Tara St, Connolly Station and Docklands) as well as twelve other suburban stations; Drumcondra, Broombridge, Ashtown, Navan Rd. Parkway, Castleknock, Coolmine, Clonsilla, Hansfield, Dunboyne, M3 Parkway, Leixlip Confey and Leixlip Louisa Bridge, making it a quick and convenient way to get to Maynooth University. Please visit <http://www.irishrail.ie/timetables/station#m> for timetables.

The South Campus is approximately five minutes' walk from Maynooth train station and the North Campus approximately ten minutes' walk.

Travelling from other parts of Ireland

Bus Éireann operates daily services from: Athlone, Ballina, Galway, Longford, Mullingar, Sligo, Tuam and Westport. See the Bus Éireann website for more details.

From Sligo, Collooney, Ballymote, Boyle, Carrick-on-Shannon, Dromod, Longford, Edgeworthstown, Mullingar, Enfield, Kilcock there are also direct rail services to Maynooth.

Parking

Visitor parking on the North Campus is available in a Pay and Display area located to the Zones 2 and 9 . A map is available here:

https://www.maynoothuniversity.ie/sites/default/files/assets/document/Parking%20on%20Campus%202016_0.pdf